

Number of schools in Charlotte-Mecklenburg

Elementary Schools for 2005-2006

91* (Smith Language Academy is counted as an elementary and middle school)

(New for 2005-2006 – Torrence Creek and Chantilly Montessori – Billingsville went back to their new school building)

Middle Schools for 2005-2006

32* (Smith Language Academy is counted as an elementary and middle school, Northwest School of the Arts is counted as a middle and high school)

(new for 2005-2006 – Community House Middle and Martin Luther King Jr. Middle)

High Schools for 2005-2006

17* (Northwest School of the Arts is counted as a middle and high school)

Special programs/schools for 2005-2006 - 10

Metro School

Morgan School

Derita Alternative

Midwood/Tate/TAPS

Morningside at Graham Alternative

(As of August 23, 05 School Board approved to permanently move the Morningside and Midwood programs to Hawthorne Middle School during the 2005-06 school year.)

Five Pre-K sites – Starmount, Double Oaks, Tryon Hills, Amay James and Plaza Road

Total number of schools - 150