A Message from the Principal

To our Idlewild Elementary School families:

This year, we are launching a School Progress Report for Idlewild Elementary. This will keep you informed about our students' academic progress, our staff and the school environment.

Analysis of our End-of-Grade test results shows Idlewild had a school composite score of 60.3 percent. In math, 64 percent of our third-grade students performed at or above grade level; 71 percent of our fourth-graders were at or above grade level, as were 73 percent of our fifth-graders. As a school, we made Expected Growth last year and will continue to strive for High Growth this school year.

The state introduced a new reading test in 2007-2008. As a result of more rigorous expectations, reading scores declined across the state, including in CMS. Since the new test covers different material from that covered in the previous test, direct year-over-year comparisons are not necessarily accurate.

Idlewild did not make Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP), the standard set for schools by the No Child Left Behind Act. We have a diverse student population and had 21 AYP targets. We met 14, or 67 percent, of those targets.

We are employing many strategies to ensure progress and growth this year. Our teachers use differentiated instruction and work with small groups to target various levels of student ability. We have recently introduced a new class that provides academically enriched instruction in math and reading to all students. Extra assistance is also available through an intensive reading model, and we have tutors available for students who need them. After-school programs include English as a Second Language for students with limited English proficiency. Additionally, we have a data team that analyzes assessment scores and determines where extra support is needed.

CMS Accountability Measures

In this section, we are highlighting several key performance indicators for our school and its students.

► Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP)

Our school DID NOT make AYP
(14 of 21 goals met)

The federal No Child Left Behind Act requires that every school make Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). State test results are used to set AYP proficiency targets for every grade. Targets are set for the school as a whole, as well as for nine separate subgroups. The subgroups are: white, black, Hispanic, Native American, Asian, multiracial, economically disadvantaged students, students with limited English proficiency and students with disabilities. A school's attendance and graduation rates are also measured for AYP.

The subgroup measurements are intended to prevent an overall score from masking poor results by one or more subgroups. Because the number of subgroups can vary depending on a school's diversity, the number of targets varies also. Some schools may have only a few targets to meet; others may have as many as 41.

AYP is an all-or-nothing standard that says every target must be met. No Child Left Behind also requires that every student be proficient by the 2013-2014 school year.

For a more complete overview of AYP, visit www.dpi.state.nc.us/nclb/abcayp/overview/ayp

For details of AYP results for our school and its student groups, visit <http://ayp.ncpublicschools.org>

► ABC Designation

Our school's designation: School of Progress
(DID meet growth expectations)

Proficiency: 60.3%

The North Carolina ABCs program was introduced more than a decade ago to better target school improvement efforts. Two basic measures determine a school's designation: the Average Growth of students (at right); and the Performance Composite, which measures how well students performed against a set standard of proficiency.

Schools are given one of seven designations (in descending order): Honor School of Excellence; School of Excellence; School of Distinction; School of Progress; No Recognition; Priority School; Low Performing.

For more information about ABCs, visit <http://abcs.ncpublicschools.org/abcs>

► Average Growth

State Standard: 80%
Our School: 81.6%

Each year, the state sets individual growth expectations for each student. A student is expected to perform as well, or better, on the End-of-Grade (EOG) assessment for the current year as he or she did, on average, during the previous two years. The Average Growth is calculated by comparing actual performance versus expected performance and then averaging the difference across all students and all subjects. The score above reflects the combined growth rate of all of our students. A school classified as making expected growth would have a score of 80% or higher.

► Students Making or Exceeding a Year's Worth of Growth

State Standard: 60%
Our School: 56.5%

This measurement assesses whether students have learned as much as they are expected to learn in one year. Expectations are set for each student based on individual performance for the previous two years. Across the state, about half of students typically meet or exceed their growth expectation. High growth is defined as a score of 60% or higher and having met expected growth.

► Amount of Growth for Students in the Lowest Achieving Group

Our School: 80.6%

Narrowing the achievement gap is widely recognized as one of the biggest challenges in public education. The lowest achieving group for CMS includes certain minority groups and those receiving free or reduced-price lunch. If lower-achieving students grow at a faster rate than better-achieving students, the achievement gap is narrowed. When the above percentage is higher than the Average Growth for the school (see Average Growth above), the school is closing the achievement gap.

► Positive Responses to Student Surveys

Our School: 81.8%

Student feedback is a subjective, but essential, component of the measure of our school's performance. We want all of our students to have a caring, supportive environment at school. This is a measure of the positive reaction from our students covering the areas of school safety, engagement and encouragement.

► Idlewild Elementary School

Idlewild is a very successful partial-magnet school. We offer a learning immersion program in K-2 and a program for gifted students in grades three through five. Last year, we were recognized as a National Magnet School of Distinction, and our Odyssey of the Mind team competed all the way to the World Finals in Maryland. We offer an outstanding electives program to allow students to explore various artistic and academic areas of interest.

Our faculty is strong and experienced. Last year, 100 percent of our teachers were highly qualified. We currently have nine teachers with National Board certification and 42 percent with advanced degrees.

I was one of 50 principals chosen last year to pilot a CMS initiative called Freedom and Flexibility with Accountability. This means that we have been given additional autonomy to keep Idlewild students moving forward.

One of the most positive qualities of Idlewild is the great diversity of our students, parents and staff. Every year, we invite the community to celebrate this gift and share experiences from all of our cultures during our International Festival.

We are committed to staying on the competitive leading edge, not only with other students and schools statewide, but globally as well. We want our students to be prepared for the changes and challenges ahead. At Idlewild Elementary School, we will continue to focus on what we believe comes first: student learning, strong teaching and high academic achievement. We stand by our mission of Building Scholars, Building Character and Building Dreams.

Sincerely,
Jane Collins
Principal

What is the School Progress Report?

In 2006, we introduced the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools Strategic Plan 2010 outlining our vision and strategy to educate our students to compete locally, nationally and internationally.

The plan outlines seven areas of concentration: high academic achievement; effective educators; adequate resources and facilities; safe and orderly schools; freedom and flexibility with accountability; world-class service, and strong parent and community connections.

In this report, you will notice how our school performed in the 2007-2008 school year compared to the stated 2010 goals. On page 3, you will also find an explanation of federal and state accountability measures with a specific emphasis on growth.

As educators and parents, we have a common goal of preparing our children to compete in an ever-growing global community. This goal requires constant dialogue between school and parents, so please feel free to contact the principal or any staff member at our school with your questions, concerns or suggestions.
