A Message from the Principal

Dear Albemarle Road Middle School parents:

This is the second School Progress Report for Albemarle Road Middle. We are sending this to you so that you may be fully informed about our students' academic progress, our staff and our school environment.

Albemarle Road is a Title I school, which means we receive extra funding based on the percentage of students receiving free or reduced-price lunch. This allows the school to have smaller classes in language arts and math, and provide tutoring both during and after school.

Albemarle Road offers the International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme, an international curriculum designed to help students develop the knowledge, understanding, attitudes and skills necessary to participate actively and responsibly in a changing world. This program encourages global thinking and interdisciplinary and service learning.

Turning to academic progress, you will see that the percentage of students at or above grade level in the whole school increased last year. We are extremely proud of our students' academic success last year in achieving Expected Growth status. In addition, the school made Adequate Yearly Progress, the standard set for schools by the No Child Left Behind Act, by meeting all 29 of our targets.

We are committed to offering students a variety of opportunities to increase academic success. These include a type of sheltered instruction often used with English-language learners; it is available to all students at Albemarle Road. We also offer Bell After School, a program that helps develop students' reading, writing and math skills.

CMS Accountability Measures

The learning of students in public education is measured in multiple ways. There are assessments given at regular intervals by CMS—tests that we use to measure how students are learning as the school year progresses. Other tests are required by the state and given once or twice a year, such as End-of-Course and End-of-Grade tests. Some of the state test results are also used to calculate district progress on the federal standard of Adequate Yearly Progress for each student. This page provides brief explanations of some of the measures and tests used in CMS.

► Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP)

Our school DID make AYP
(29 of 29 goals met)

The federal No Child Left Behind Act requires that every school make Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). AYP is an all-or-nothing standard: Every target must be met.

State test results are used to set AYP targets. There are separate targets for the school as a whole and for nine subgroups of students: white, black, Hispanic, Native American, Asian, multiracial, economically disadvantaged students, students with limited English proficiency and students with disabilities. Subgroups of students are measured separately so that an overall score for a class or a school does not mask poor results within a subgroup.

Some schools are more diverse than others, so the number of subgroups varies by school. Therefore, the number of AYP targets varies by school, too. Some schools may have only a few targets to meet; others may have the maximum, which is 41. School attendance and graduation rates are also measured for AYP.

For a more complete overview of AYP, visit www.dpi.state.nc.us/nclb/abcayp/overview/ayp

For details of AYP results for our school and its student groups, visit <http://ayp.ncpublicschools.org>

► ABC Designation

Our school's designation: School of Progress
(DID meet growth expectations)

Proficiency: 62.0%

The North Carolina ABCs program was introduced more than a decade ago to help schools improve. It uses two basic measures to assess a school's performance: the Average Growth of students (at right); and the Performance Composite, which measures how well students performed against a state-set standard of academic achievement.

Schools are given one of seven designations. In descending order, they are: Honor School of Excellence, School of Excellence, School of Distinction, School of Progress, No Recognition, Priority School, and Low Performing.

For more information about ABCs, visit <http://abcs.ncpublicschools.org/abcs>

► Average Growth

State Standard: 80%
Our School: 82.2%

Did our students meet the state's expectation for academic growth? Each student is expected to perform as well (or better) on the End-of-Grade assessment as he or she did, on average, during the previous two years. Average Growth for a school is calculated by comparing actual performance to expected performance and then averaging the difference across all students and all subjects. The score above reflects the combined growth rate of all of our students. To make expected growth, a school must have a score of 80% or higher.

► Students Making or Exceeding a Year's Worth of Growth

State Standard: 60%
Our School: 59.3%

Did our students learn as much as they were expected to learn this year? As described above, the state sets expectations for each student based on individual performance for the previous two years. Across the state, about half of students typically meet or exceed this growth expectation. To earn the high-growth designation, a school must meet the average-growth standard described above and also have more than 60% of its students make expected growth.

► Amount of Growth for Students in the Lowest Achieving Group

Our School: 81.6%

Are we helping our low achievers catch up? Historically, some poor and minority students have trailed their classmates in academic achievement. This is called the achievement gap, and closing it is one of the biggest challenges in public education. If the lower-achieving students at a school show academic growth at a faster rate than higher-achieving students, the achievement gap is narrowed. When the percentage for this measure is higher than the Average Growth for the school, the school is closing the achievement gap.

► Positive Responses to Multiple Student Survey Items

Our School's Results:	Safety	88%
	Encouragement	98%
	Engagement	94%

Do our students perceive this school as safe and welcoming? This measure is subjective—it is taken from a student survey.

The program also offers enrichment activities, such as science, art, music, physical education, guest speakers and mentoring. Supplemental Education Services, provided two days a week, focus on reading and math strategies. Mi Casa Su Casa is a partnership that offers services for Latino students and families. Finally, we participate in Communities in Schools program, the nation's largest and most effective dropout-prevention network.

Our faculty is committed to helping all students achieve and become responsible global citizens. All teachers and paraprofessionals are highly qualified and understand the importance of being lifelong learners and teaching those skills to their students. The staff participates in training that is designed to address needs within the school for students and staff. This allows staff members to increase their knowledge and sharpen instructional skills by working collaboratively.

At Albemarle Road, we are dedicated to the belief that everyone counts. This is reflected in every part of our school from the classroom to the main office and beyond. We are working tirelessly to make the school a center for the community, doing whatever it takes for everyone who is part of the school to be successful. It is our goal to help each of our students reach full potential in a welcoming, nurturing environment.

Sincerely,
Avery Mitchell

What is the School Progress Report?

In 2006, we introduced the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools Strategic Plan 2010 outlining our vision and strategy to educate our students to compete locally, nationally and internationally.

The plan outlines seven areas of concentration: high academic achievement; effective educators; adequate resources and facilities; safe and orderly schools; freedom and flexibility with accountability; world-class service, and strong parent and community connections. This report summarizes how our school performed in the 2008-09 school year in making progress on these seven goals. On page 3, you will also find an explanation of federal and state accountability measures.

Educators and parents have a common goal of preparing our children to compete in an ever-growing global community. Working together requires frequent dialogue between school and parents, so please feel free to contact the principal or any staff member at our school.
