

Dr. Scott R. Muri
Chief Information Officer

Dr. Scott R. Muri is the chief information officer for Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools. He leads a 160-member information/technology division that is charged with driving key technology and performance management initiatives.

“As leaders in education, we have a moral imperative to provide all students with an effective teacher in every classroom and an effective leader in every school,” Dr. Muri said. “I believe in rigorous standards for students, teachers, leaders and myself. Teaching and learning must be relevant and engaging. Transformational leadership is critical to success in the urban school environment.”

Dr. Muri previously served as the zone superintendent for the CMS Northeast Learning Zone. Before joining CMS in 2007, Dr. Muri served as an instructional technology specialist and administrator at Disney’s Celebration School in Celebration, Florida. A native of Knoxville, Tennessee, Dr. Muri earned a bachelor’s degree in intermediate and middle school education from Wake Forest University and a master’s degree in school administration from Stetson University. He holds a specialist degree and a doctorate in educational leadership from Wingate University.
